PRESS RELEASE

Road Town, Tortola. September 4, 2012. Kading Companies, SA (OTC: KDNG), in a major business shift, is focusing its energies into South American metals mining with an emphasis on precious metals in Peru and copper mining in Chile. Kading is taking this step as it sees continued long term growth in the demand and pricing of precious metals and select other metals such as copper. "I am very excited about the opportunity and feel highly confident this will create significant value for our shareholders, investors, the local communities, and the miners", said Kevin Kading, CEO of Kading Companies.
